REWARDS OF THE GREAT.

Some conclusions are reached by the 22 judges of the Tonopah Bonanza. They seem to think that the Ku Klux Klan is a dangerous organization and that it should be disbanded. They also think that the Ku Klux Klan is a threat to the peace and stability of the United States.

FORD'S FINANCING FEAT.

Many men have pondered the question of how Ford was able to finance his great business. The answer is simple: he was able to finance his business because he was able to sell his cars.

DISBAND THE KU KLUX KLAN.

Colonel William J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, may be as indignant as he professes over the villainous alleged against members of his order. He has suspended one local charter, revoked another and started an investigation of activities of other

The Separate Skirt

A PRACTICAL, neat-looking, free-lying separate skirt, as pictured here for mid-summer wear, is typical of the majority of separate skirts which are tailored affairs as usual as suits. It is representative of many of the one-piece skirts, however, for there are as many types of skirts as there are of hats and they are all made in unending variety.

Nothing is prettier for ordinary wear than skirts of striped or cross-hatched materials in which a color or black re-creates the plaiting of all white. Light wood fabrics with hairline stripes or cross-hatches in black like that in the skirt pictured, have found many admirers this summer. Others, with stripes in high colors alternating with white, are very attractive and so that the white predominates, and there are
